

3rd July 2025

2 July 2025

Football Sports

Why Does No One Care About Epsom & Ewell Football Club?

1 July 2025

By most measures, Epsom & Ewell Football Club should be one of the borough's proudest institutions. Founded in 1918, steeped in history, and once a beacon of non-league ambition, it's ... Read More

Health News

Epsom Hospital workers to strike for equality?

1 July 2025

More than 200 essential hospital cleaners and porters could strike over NHS equality at a Surrey Hospital Trust. Approximately 258 NHS facilities workers at St Helier and Epsom Hospital Trust ... Read More

Education Environment News

Are paper bottles the solution asks Surrey Uni

1 July 2025

There are few excuses left for polluting our environment with plastics - and the UK can lead the charge towards a more circular future, say researchers from the University of ... Read More

Arts Culture

The Royal Marines Band Collingwood at Epsom Playhouse

28 June 2025

Organised by Cllr Dr Graham Jones MBE (Lieutenant Colonel (retired) (RA Cuddington) the renowned Royal Marines Band

Collingwood made a triumphant performance at the Epsom Playhouse on Friday night, delivering ... Read More
News

Will the doomed Epsom and Ewell Borough Council rise from the ashes in other forms?

27 June 2025

Epsom, 26 June 2025 — Epsom & Ewell Borough Council has taken a significant step towards reshaping local governance in response to the wider reorganisation of local government in Surrey, ... Read More

Community Education News

Epsom and Ewell parents taking on the child smartphone challenge

27 June 2025

Local parents are joining a national movement to delay children's exposure to smartphones, with a sold-out event next week highlighting local concerns. Epsom & Ewell's Smartphone Free Childhood (SFC) group ... Read More

Arts Business News

Netflix to mainstream in Surrey

27 June 2025

A Surrey film studio used by Netflix, the streaming giant behind hit shows such as Stranger Things, Bridgerton and Adolescence, will be made permanent after full planning permission was granted. ... Read More

Housing News Planning

110-Home Scheme at Langley Vale Sparks Green Belt Fears

27 June 2025

A neighbour has spoken out against early proposals by developer Fairfax to build up to 110 new homes on farmland at Langley Bottom Farm in Langley Vale, describing the plans ... Read More

Arts Community Culture

Epsom Picturehouse blossoms with Pride

27 June 2025

Picturehouse Epsom is proud to announce a powerful new partnership with Blossom LGBT to launch OUT — a year-round celebration of LGBTQ+ cinema. Together, we're amplifying queer voices on screen ... Read More

News Policing

Student overdose leads to policy change

27 June 2025

A university student from Surrey could have been saved from an overdose if police had left a voicemail for her parents, an inquest jury has found. Despite needing to find ... Read More

News

Two unitaries will save money says Surrey leader

27 June 2025

Splitting Surrey into two could fill the ever-widening gap for council funding, County Council leader Tim Oliver claims. In a cabinet meeting yesterday (June 26), the Surrey leader and councillor ... Read More

Council Environment

Epsom & Ewell Biodiversity Action Plan's five-year review ratified

27 June 2025

Epsom & Ewell Borough Council's Environment Committee has formally endorsed the progress made on its Biodiversity Action Plan (BAP) 2020-2030, following a scheduled five-year review presented at its meeting on ... Read More

Council Finances

Epsom and Ewell Council Tax Arrears Top £1.8 Million

27 June 2025

Council tax arrears in Epsom and Ewell have reached £1.8 million, according to new figures from the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities. The amount contributes to a record ... Read More

Business Education

Ewell students cruise to new careers

27 June 2025

Cruise industry giants have teamed up with three colleges to highlight the sector as an exciting, rewarding career pathway for school leavers. This included 12 Travel and Tourism students at ... Read More