For the community, by the community

The Epsom and Ewell Times provides a fair and objective news service for the Borough of Epsom and Ewell.

The content of the news service focuses on the local matters of interest to residents of Epsom and Ewell.

Reporters include "citizen journalists" from the local community.

The Epsom and Ewell Times is politically neutral and ensures proportionate and fair exposure for the range of mainstream political opinions and "non-political" opinions, relevant to the community of the Borough.

The Epsom and Ewell Times promotes community cohesion and celebrates the positive activities, businesses, lives and events in the Borough while being fearless in reporting matters of controversy, ensuring opposing points of view are represented in a balanced and fair manner.

Where any controversies concern public bodies The Epsom and Ewell Times does not name public employees unless it is absolutely necessary to inform the public. This is to ensure employees in the public sector are not discouraged in their service and to maintain a positive approach to the fair resolution and understanding of controversial issues.

The Epsom and Ewell Times is published periodically and is available in limited quantities in print and electronically via the internet.

Epsom and Ewell Times at all times welcomes contributions of writing and photographs for publication.
