

Epsom Choral Society's Christmas Concert

Epsom Choral Society again presents its ever-popular annual Christmas Concert on Saturday 21st December at 7:30pm at St Martin's Church in Epsom.

Always a highlight of the festive season, this year's concert promises to be a joyful celebration filled with music, readings, and plenty of audience participation.

The choir is delighted to welcome back Connaught Brass, one of the UK's leading brass ensembles, known for their vibrant performances across the UK and Europe. Together, they will bring the true spirit of Christmas alive through stirring instrumental pieces and traditional favourites.

This year's programme features a variety of carols and Christmas songs performed by the choir, accompanied by Marion Lea on the piano and Ben Lewis-Smith on the organ, as well as seasonal brass arrangements and uplifting Christmas readings. As always, the audience will also have the opportunity to join in singing much-loved traditional carols, filling the church with the warmth and joy of the season.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit of giving, there will be an exit collection in aid of the charity Cardiac Risk in the Young (CRY). CRY works to reduce the frequency of young sudden cardiac deaths through vital awareness, screening, and research, making this a particularly meaningful way to support those in need during the holiday season.

Tickets:

- £20 per person
- Half price (£10) for under-25s

Tickets, which include a free glass of wine and a free programme with the words of the carols, can be bought online at: <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/epsom-choral-society/t-ojrzldn> or at the door.
