

Debra Morley - soprano

13 April 2023

When Epsom based soprano, Debra Morley, isn't busy performing in London's major venues, she's happy to entertain local audiences in one of the town's best concert venues, St Martin's Church.

Accompanied by pianist Graeme Lodge, Debra presents an eclectic selection of songs ranging from the best of 18th century Italy and England, to operetta gems by Franz Lehar and the dynamic duo of Gilbert and Sullivan through to the unique genius of Ivor Novello's writing. Prepare to be entertained!

The concert lasts about an hour. Admission is by donation.
