

East Surrey Poverty Truth Commission Launch

26 October 2023

The launch of the East Surrey Poverty Truth Commission is open to any organisations or individuals who are concerned about the rising number of local residents who are struggling financially and want to do something about it.

This is a unique opportunity to hear from people with experience of living on a low income, and to explore how we can all work together to tackle poverty and reduce the need for the Foodbank.