Epsom Choral Society Concert – A Season to Sing

10 May 2026

A Season to Sing is a choral reimagining of Vivaldi's Four Seasons by Joanna Forbes L'Estrange.

It weaves Bible verses, poetry, hymns, madrigals and sonnets into Vivaldi's very popular music, creating a colourful and expressive musical journey through Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. It is bookended with Forbes L'Estrange's own original settings of To everything there is a season.

The concert also includes two beautiful pieces by Ola Gjeilo and a mystical work by Morten Lauridsen.
