

Epsom & Ewell Silver Band - Free afternoon concert

The Epsom and Ewell Silver Band takes you on a journey across an assortment of composers and musical genres, from Disney and Star Wars, through showtunes and romantic classics to traditional tunes and marches. With superb ensemble playing and outstanding soloists, the full spectrum of the band will be on show.

There's a classic Disney medley, a Star Wars compilation and a Vaughan Williams arrangement of a Salvation Army hymn tune. Add to this cornet, tenor horn, trombone and xylophone solos - and a nightingale singing in Berkeley Square.

Free concert - donations welcomed.
