

Epsom Jazz Club presents Sharp Little Bones

9 March 2025

Tickets are available now for our next show on Thursday 27th March, featuring 'Sharp Little Bones'.

This is not a date to miss. We're talking invigorating modern post-bop. Saxophonist Tony Kofi has won both BBC Jazz and Parliamentary Jazz awards and has been nominated for a MOBO. He and the band played a sold-out London Jazz Festival show just last year. What an exciting group of performers to have come to Epsom!
