

Epsom Jazz Club presents the Nigel Price Organ Trio

10 September 2026

Our new season opens with our own local jazz legend, Nigel Price, playing the guitar, with Joel Barford on drums and Ross Stanley on the organ. Nigel is well known at Epsom Jazz Club, having performed for us on a number of occasions. Over the years, he has played with a diverse range of musicians and prestigious venues such as with Gladys Knight at the Royal Albert Hall, and at Ronnie Scott's where he is a regular. This line up is bound to be a fantastic start to our new programme!
