

Free concert - Sarah Small, viola da gamba

22 June 2026

With her eye on sustainability, Sarah Small has been cycling from venue to venue with her viola da gamba (an early version of the cello) strapped to her bicycle on her UK concert tour. So far, she's clocked up 4500km and she's now calling at St Martin's Church in Epsom. Drawing inspiration from the natural world, Sarah performs music old and new and is joined for this concert by local viola da gamba player, Helen Williams. We ask for donations for this concert. Tea and cake are served from 4.30 and you're invited to stay on after the concert for Evening Prayer.