

Gala Concert, Band of the Irish Guards

6 February 2026

By popular demand we are delighted to welcome to Epsom Playhouse the Band of His Majesty's Irish Guards. The Band is comprised of musicians from the Royal Corps of Army Music and is one of 14 Regular Army Bands in the British Army. It was formed on 1st April 1900, to commemorate the bravery of the men from the Irish Regiments who fought with distinction in the South African campaigns.

The Band has a worldwide reputation for performing outstanding and spectacular concerts to packed houses in some of the most prestigious concert halls in the world to critical acclaim. They can be seen performing for Changing of the King's Guard at Buckingham Palace and also the King's Birthday Parade.

Come along and enjoy one of the top Military Bands in the Armed Forces today in, what promises to be, a spectacular evening of top quality entertainment.
