

Musicians of City of London Freemen's School

17 September 2024

In this first of the new season of Music @ St Martin's afternoon concerts you can enjoy the inspiring company of some of this local school's most talented musicians. They will perform an entertaining selection of old and new works. The concert which lasts about an hour is free. Donations appreciated.