

Schubert's Mass No. 2 in G major

6 May 2024

As part of the Saturday afternoon Music @ St Martin's series a selection of talented musicians from Epsom College perform Schubert's charming missa brevis. Schubert was just 18 when he composed this - no older than some of the students who are performing this youthful setting. Accompanying the College's Chamber Choir is the String Orchestra and the church's fine organ played by the Organ Scholar. Admission is by donation.
