

GALLERY: Epsom wears its Royal pride as the Jubilee approaches

25 May 2022

Epsom is gearing up for a big week. The Queen's Platinum Jubilee approaches fast, and with the crowning jewel of the events taking place at Epsom Racecourse, it's hardly surprising that Epsom is adorned with art, flags and murals commemorating the Queen's long reign.

Epsom's railway bridges are being prepared for Her Majesty with murals painted by local artists. The jubilee-themed artworks are meant to celebrate the Queen's long reign and energise the local people, making sure everyone feels the buzz of the coming celebrations.

Local businesses are feeling the spirit too. When you walk through Epsom Town Centre, Union Jacks and images of the Queen's likeness are everywhere.

We've gone around the town snapping photos of all the amazing decorations that local people and businesses are adorning our town with.

We take our hats off to these businesses and people who have shown their pride in our Queen, and look forward to seeing even more decoration as the Jubilee approaches ever faster.
