Man injured in car crash at Epsom General Hospital

4 May 2022

On Tuesday afternoon, a serious collision took place in Epsom General Hospital's car park. At 3:07 PM, the driver of a red Kia is believed to have lost control of their vehicle and driven into a passing pedestrian. The pedestrian, who is male, is currently receiving medical attention for his injuries.

The police are appealing for information following the incident. If you have a dashcam or a helmet cam that may have captured what happened, or if you were in the area from 3:00 pm – 3:10 pm, the police urge you to get in contact.

Get in touch with Surrey Police quoting PR/45220046682 via their live webchat or on their online reporting tool.

If you don't wish to speak with the police, you can call independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
