

Options are open at Nescot - GCSE students reassured there's still time to apply

20 August 2026

Students collecting their GCSE results today are being reassured that there is still time to apply for courses at Nescot college in Epsom. Options range from Animal Care and Public Services to Travel & Tourism, Business and IT.

Whether students are keen to help look after the college alpacas as part of the Animal Care course or visit a cruise ship to learn about the industry up close, Nescot has a range of courses which blend practical skills, theory and real-world experiences.

Those who didn't get the results they wanted today are able to get support from Nescot's advice and guidance teams. Most courses start at level 1 and students can re-take their English and Maths GCSEs alongside their new course. Last term, 1,367 students sat Maths and English GCSEs at Nescot, with entries significantly increasing compared to the previous year - a 16% rise in students taking Maths and a 29% rise in those taking English.

Nescot Principal and CEO, Julie Kapsalis MBE said: "Whatever your results today, it's not too late to explore your options and enrol on a course starting in September. Our expert team is on hand to give you personalised support and advice, and we've got a wide range of subjects to get you inspired and excited about your next step."

Katie, Level 3 business student said: "If anyone is thinking of coming to Nescot, I would definitely recommend it. I've really enjoyed my time here and I'm happy with the decision I made."
