

Reeds Weybridge 27 - Sutton & Epsom 12

Following the disappointment of last season's relegation Sutton & Epsom RFC had a stern test in their Regional 2 South East opener with a trip to Reeds Weybridge. The hosts are one of the country's most upwardly mobile clubs with six promotions in the last eight campaigns whilst they finished third at the last time of asking. There was some compensation for missing out on their habitual climb up the rugby pyramid. An excellent cup run ended in an 18-3 defeat to league rivals Battersea Ironsides at Saracens' StoneX Stadium in the final of the inaugural Papa John's Regional 2 South Plate. For the Black & Whites it was their first league encounter with the men from Whiteley Village. S&E welcomed debutants Chris Ballard, Kean Orchard and Max Russell to the 1st XV whilst, on the other end of the scale, it was a red-letter-day for Will Lloyd as the veteran prop made his 100th 1st XV league appearance. Unfortunately, Sutton failed to open their account at the first time of asking as Reeds Weybridge deservedly won by 27-12.

On a magnificent summer's afternoon, with a cricket match in progress on the other side of the trees, S&E's new captain, Freddy Bunting, initiated proceedings kicking down the modest slope with a gentle breeze in his face. The hosts completely dominated the opening fifteen minutes. They imposed their tempo and pattern on the game. After an initial penetrative carry by a forward or two the ball was spun wide. Despite the territory and possession the forward bursts were modest rather than devastating. Sutton survived a quick tapped penalty from the alert Ollie Palmer but having cleared their lines incurred their first penalty to the new experimental tackle laws. A probing kick to the corner gave RW a great attacking platform. The first assault was repelled by a Matt Whitaker tackle but swift recycling saw the ball swung blind and an overlap was created for lock Cameron Goodwin to stride home. Jack Jesty added the extras with a sweetly struck conversion from the flank for a 7-0 lead.

Buoyed by the opening score on five minutes the Hersham men looked to stamp their authority on the game and extend their advantage. Despite the next ten minutes being one-way traffic the hosts and spectators were frustrated by the stop-start nature of the proceedings. Errors were met with a bountiful whistle as infringements and rustiness were not excused by Referee Wright. A second try for RW seemed inevitable as Coriolanian Sutton defence was required to hold their line. The ball was sent wide for an inevitable score but a diving Michael Davies intercepted a pass with a catch more familiar to cricket than rugby. The frustrated hosts conceded a penalty and the visitors cleared from under their posts.

Belatedly S&E had some possession and immediately put it to great effect. Fluent handling saw them arrive for their first visit into the alien 22. Another penalty was awarded and Bunting kicked to the corner. Before the lineout was taken prop Alex Mount was replaced by Tom Boaden. From the throw a well-executed lineout saw the mass of Black & White shirts bundle over the line. Rob Hegarty emerged from the pile to claim the try. Freddy Bunting's touchline conversion drifted wide as Reeds led 7-5. They followed a period of dominance from the men from Rugby Lane. The visitors mimicked their opposition by failing to add to their total despite the monopoly of territory and possession. Though they were unfortunate that when Ben Tame crossed the whitewash from another lineout the referee was unsighted and gave the only decision available to her and Reeds had a relieving drop out. However, the visitors only had themselves to blame for failing to secure the lead. They were turned over near the line and conceded a penalty with a try at their mercy. It was the turn of RW to show the virtues of Horatio on his famous bridge.

Sutton's profligacy was punished in the 40th minute. Chris Ballard's pass was impeded at the ruck and the loose ball was poached. Captain Bunting made an excellent tackle to stop the try but the second wave saw hooker Rhys Day score despite another thunderous tackle. Jack Jesty added the conversion to stretch the lead to 14-5. There was eight additional minutes to the half and Sutton spent more time in the far 22 but to no avail as the sides went into the interval with Reeds Weybridge 14-5 to the good.

Naturally Sutton and Epsom were desperate for the opening score of the second period. But within a minute it was the boot of Jesty that added an early penalty from in front of the posts for a healthy advantage of 17-5. The visitors played at a higher tempo but still struggled to be clinical as they tried to get back into the game. Frequent blasts of the whistle impaired both teams until the Hersham side were offered another opportunity to extend their lead. For the only occasion in the game Jack Jesty erred and S&E's task was not made any harder. Solid defence rebuffed the Black & Whites as Gareth O'Brien's scything run was halted by the offence of crossing. Reeds Weybridge then gave the visitors a lesson in scoring. From a period of sustained pressure and patient ball retention blindside Joe Wastie rounded off the attack. Normal service resumed from Jack Jesty and RW led by the sizeable margin of 24-5.

Sutton and Epsom needed a rapid reply and it came from the most familiar source. An alert Chris Ballard took a quick tap penalty then the ball was spread wide and S&E threatened again but this time Matt Whitaker was on hand to score. Freddy Bunting eased over the conversion to trail 12-24. For Reeds' Captain Herbie Finn there was not the standard scalding vituperation that often follows these moments but the sagacious advice to his troops that the game was not over. The Black & Whites needed to maintain the pressure and add to this score to create doubt in the minds of their opponents. However, careless penalties were conceded, the ball was cleared and any flames of recovery were extinguished by the commendably calm game management of the hosts.

In the last five minutes Referee Wright brandished a yellow card, going about the task with a mortician's lofty detachment from the irksome job in hand. Reeds would have to play out the game with 14 but it was too late to have a telling impact as Joe Wastie went from player to spectator. After five minutes of time added on the hosts were awarded another penalty and the assured Jack Jesty bisected the uprights to conclude proceedings with Reeds Weybridge victorious to the tune of 27-12.

Reeds deserved their victory. Their lineout provided quality possession, their forwards carried effectively and they played at pace. Through notable absentees in their ranks they perhaps lacked that telling intervention in the back division to punch holes in the defence but they will not be overly concerned having taken the points. Unlike Sutton and Epsom they opted to kick simple penalties and kept the opposition at arm's length. The hosts played with an excellent tempo and to their familiar pattern and imposed themselves on the game in the first quarter. They should have gained more than their solitary goal but early season rustiness will no doubt be replaced by clinical efficiency in the weeks to come. Their defence was resolute and their game management in the last quarter meant there was going to be no famous Sutton comeback.

For the visitors it was a delight to see the return of Matt Whitaker. Sutton and Epsom without Whitaker would be like Hamlet without the Prince and for the umpteenth time the opposition declared him the pick of the S&E bunch. Debutant Chris Ballard at 9 impressed with not only his service but also his ability to exploit the gaps. It was not for want of effort that centurion Will Lloyd failed to be on the winning side. He was rock solid in the scrum, made his carries and offloads as well as a crucial intervention on the line that prevented a Reeds try. Neither side benefited from the frequency of the stoppages but the Black & Whites failed to play with the fluency that was demonstrated in pre-season. One feels a victory would transform their demeanour.

Next Saturday 9th September league rugby returns to Rugby Lane with a 3pm home fixture against Beckenham RFC all are most welcome to attend.
