

Editorial Board

11 March 2022

Grant Leonard

Epsom and Ewell resident. A career in publishing as editor What Mortgage, Superbike, founder Two Wheels Only and presently founder and editor of The Negotiator

Martin Knight

Martin Knight was born in the borough of Epsom & Ewell . Martin has had a long career in newspapers, firstly with the Financial Times, and then with various media monitoring agencies he has launched. Martin is also an author of local histories and has co-written autobiographies. He is a shareholder in Early Morning Media Ltd and publisher London Books Ltd.

Ellen Cummings

Epsom and Ewell resident. Ellen Cummings is a journalist and editor with experience working in the dental, beauty and film industries.

Steve Moore

Epsom and Ewell resident. The cofounder of Centre for Medicinal Cannabis, Association for the Cannabinoid Industry and think tank VolteFace. He was formerly Chief Executive of the Big Society Network which was launched with then Prime Minister David Cameron in 2010. Steve provided public affairs counsel to Channel 4 from 2004-2010 He is currently Chair of sustainability branding agency Earth Strategies, strategic counsel to the Design and Arts Copyright Society and the Big Tent Foundation. Steve writes on politics and society for Reaction.

Baron Armah-Kwatreng

Epsom and Ewell resident. Former head of research at the leading global directory of commercial lawyers and research editor of a quarterly industry magazine. He is currently a senior policy adviser at The Brain Tumour Charity. His voluntary roles include being a presenter on Epsom Hospital Radio and previously being chair of trustees of education charity ELATT and a contributor to The Hubcast

Keith Morris

With a career in journalism and publishing he is the publisher and editor of a Christian based news Network Norwich